Acheta Domesticus

House Cricket (Linnaeus, 1758)

House crickets produce a large amount of natural compounds such as Iron (Fe), Zinc (Zn), Copper (Cu), Biotin (B7) and Keratin which can be ideally used as a treatment to promote hair growth.

Fe transfer oxygen to the hair follicles and scalp

Cu helps the collagen synthesis with Vitamin C, inhibits male hormone (DHT)

Bio tin inhibits 5 alpha-reductase & provide an anti-inflammatory action

Zn helps the collagen synthesis with Vitamin C, inhibits male hormone (DHT)

Adult Kera tin Supplies nutrition to hair follicle and improves blood circulation flow

HAIR LOSS

depression anxiety

social phobia affect visual appearance

66% of men above 35 have experienced hair loss

Male-pattern baldness appears due to a hereditary condition that happens with aging. DHT shrink the hair follicles as well as shorten the cycle, causing hair to grow out looking thinner and fall out faster. It also takes longer for the follicle to grow new hair.
